

Enthusiastic fishmonger required for an immediate start

James Knight of Mayfair isn't just any high street fishmonger; it is the crème de la crème of this sector, retailing in Selfridges Food Hall and an outlet at Notting Hill Gate.

Demand for our fish and shellfish products is on the rise and as a result, we need a skilled fishmonger to help with our expansion.

The duties of the job

Scaling, cleaning and filleting fish to customer requirements

Advising customers on fish preparation, cooking and recipe ideas

Arranging fish displays

Following rigorous cleaning procedures in the preparation and customer-facing areas

Perform some light administrative tasks including taking customer orders by telephone, checking supplier invoices and processing orders by computer

What we're looking for

We are looking for a candidate with an outgoing, enthusiastic personality who will build good relationships with our customers. With impeccable manners, we would like them to possess the persuasion skills to help us sell that perfect garlic butter with the lobster they've ordered, and how it should be grilled to perfection. We would love them to be enthusiastic foodies and to have previous experience as a fishmonger.

What you'll receive in return

Your salary will be competitive and you will receive four weeks holiday a year. You will be part of a close-knit team where you will be encouraged to create ideas to improve our customer's experience and our retail offer.

How to apply

If you think you fit the bill after reading this advert, we would be delighted to hear from you with a CV and a covering letter which should include a brief response to the following questions:

1. Why do you want to work at James Knight of Mayfair?
2. Describe a time when you accomplished something you thought was impossible (this can be work related or personal)
3. What is your ideal fish dinner for four people?
